Notes

¹ Other options that fulfill the statistics requirement are: MATH 2311, PSCI 2312, SOC 2321, or PSYC 2330.

² There are two other options for the Gen Ed/American History and Government that can be taken, but PSCI 1330 is recommended.

³ Although there are several other options to choose from for the Gen Ed/Behavioral and Social Science category, an economics course and a geography course are recommended.

⁴ Because this course is not offered on a regular basis, if it is not offered during the student's final years another course from the elective category can be substituted.
