

The Board of Trustees, Arkansas State Teachers College, Conway, Arkansas, met with Governor McMath November 17, 1950 in the Governor's office pursuant to the Governor's invitation and to legal notice of the meeting.

State Comptroller Leroy Beasley, Bursar Harold Eidson, and President Irby met with the Board.

Chairman Cox outlined the needs of the college to the Governor who expressed an understanding of the needs and a desire to see that they are met. He discussed proposed legislative procedures for raising additional revenues for the public schools, the colleges and certain other state agencies.

When the meeting with the Governor was ended, the Board recessed to meet immediately in the Governor's reception room.

The Chairman noted that all members of the Board were present and directed that the minutes of the last meeting be read. Without objection the minutes were approved.

The Chairman called for items of old business. There were none. He then called for items of new business.

President Irby presented a request from the Phi Lambda Chi fraternity for permission to establish a chapter house on or near the campus. Trustee Flanagin made the motion that the Board of Trustees approve in general the request and that the college administration be directed to establish the necessary policies affecting this chapter house and any others which may ultimately be established. Trustee Johnston seconded the motion which carried unanimously.

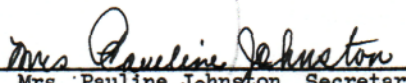

Trustee Snow made the motion that if a classroom building on the campus be authorized and financed by the General Assembly, the architect firm of Ginnocchio and Cromwell, Little Rock, be employed to supply plans and to supervise the erection of the building. Trustee Parham seconded the motion which carried unanimously.

Trustee Guthridge made the motion that, if and when college employees become eligible for social security benefits, President Irby be authorized to act for and in behalf of the college to secure such benefits. Trustee Johnston seconded the motion which carried unanimously.

There being no further business, the Board adjourned until legally called into session again.

 R. A. Cox, Chairman

 Mrs. Pauline Johnston, Secretary