

Little Rock, Arkansas,
December 9th, 1921.

On this 9th day of December, 1921, the Board of Trustees for the Arkansas State Normal School met pursuant to adjournment in the office of Hon. J. L. Bond, with the following members present, to-wit: J. L. Bond, Judge A. L. Hutchins, Joe Frauenthal, Joe Ferguson and Jas. Guy Tucker.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. J. L. Bond, Chairman, and the following proceedings were had, to-wit:

A letter of resignation from Miss Dora B. Smith, Critic Teacher, was read and her resignation accepted.

Mr. Torreyson was authorized to employ a Critic Teacher to succeed Miss Smith, from Jan. 1st, 1922 to the end of the regular term at a salary not to exceed $200.00 per month.

Mr. Torreyson reported that the heating plant at the Normal School was operating satisfactorily and that it would probably be necessary to make some changes in same. It was suggested that Mr. Searles, Engineer of the Capitol Bldg., be called in to consultation on the matter, which was done.

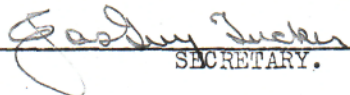

Mr. Torreyson was authorized to advertise for bids for furnishing printing and stationery for the Normal.

On the suggestion of Mr. Torreyson, it was ordered that the Library and Incidental Fund be separated into two distinct funds, one to be known as the Library Fund and one to be known as Incidental fund to pay for same. A motion to this effect was duly made and passed.

The expenses of attending the meeting of Judge A. L. Hutchins and Joe Frauenthal were allowed.

There being no further business, the Board adjourned, subject to the call of the Chairman.
