ACTION AGENDA
President’s Residence Advisory Committee – Board Policy No. 209

Board Policy No. 209 provides in part that the President’s Residence Advisory Committee is to (a) review any proposed changes to the president’s home and grounds; (b) review the estimated costs thereof and the sources and uses of funds to make any such improvements; and (c) make recommendations to the Board of Trustees. The committee met on September 23, 2014, and considered a proposal from Ms. Erica Ruble, a member of the Staff Senate, that bear cubs be carved out of the remainder of the dead tree located in the back yard of the president’s house. The carving would be performed by the same individual that carved the bear named Valor located in front of Wingo Hall. The tree died earlier this year and the majority of the tree was removed as a safety precaution. The estimated cost for the carving is $5,000, and the funds have been allocated by the Staff Senate. President and Mrs. Courtway support the request. The University Public Art Committee has also approved the request. The President’s Residence Advisory Committee voted unanimously to recommend approval of the project to the Board of Trustees.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted upon motion by Victor Green and second by Shelia Vaught:

“BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Trustees approves the recommendation of the President’s Residence Advisory Committee and approves the expenditure of funds from the Staff Senate on the recommended project.”

Websites:

An official website is one that communicates official information about the services, requirements, or curriculum of UCA, or one of its programs or offices and is maintained for that purpose by an academic department or administrative office. Official website content (text and images) is developed by each individual department. Once official websites are developed, they are reviewed and approved by the Web Development Office before being linked to UCA’s website and are subsequently monitored for compliance.

Top-level websites are maintained by the Web Development Office.

A non-official website is any site that does not fall under the definition of an official website. Examples of non-official websites are personal home pages and the pages of student organizations. UCA reserves the right to remove non-official links in which content does not comply with the General Guidelines.

Websites should be well organized, clear and up-to-date. Content must be reviewed regularly to ensure continued accuracy. A regular review by the owners (website authors) is the best method to ensure timeliness and accuracy. However, the director of web development will perform periodic audits and, if necessary, remove or modify content.

Website authors must ensure that required copyright and trademark permissions have been obtained prior to posting copied material. Without due care and attention, copyright and trademark rights can be violated by simply “borrowing” or copying content from other sources. Violations can lead to severe penalties, which fall on both the user publishing the content and the institution hosting the material.

Links to Non–UCA Websites:

UCA assumes no responsibility for content on non–UCA sites. Website authors should consider that such links, even when clearly labeled, may be misinterpreted as being associated with the university. Users with links to pages in which they have a monetary interest should be aware of the risk of being in violation of policies regarding advertising and commercial use.

Violations of This Policy:

A Website Task Force, convened by the director of Web Development and composed of the vice president of university and government relations, as well as representatives of the faculty, the Division of University and Government Relations, the Division of Advancement, the Division of Student Services, and the university’s legal counsel, will review webpages or links to determine whether they meet these guidelines and comply with applicable policies. If the task force determines that content is not appropriate or violates policies, the task force may remove or modify the content. If the task force determines that content is not appropriate or violates policies, it may correct, update, modify and/or remove the content. The content provider will be notified and may appeal, in writing, to the Website Task Force.
The Distinguished Alumnus Award is the most prestigious award presented to an alumnus of the University of Central Arkansas.

“A Distinguished Alumnus for the University of Central Arkansas is recognized for outstanding contribution to the University, community, state or society; outstanding achievement in a particular field of endeavor; possessing a reputation that enhances the reputation of the University and serves as an example to UCA students; and contributing to the goals or the welfare of the University.”

The University of Central Arkansas has awarded the citation of “Distinguished Alumnus” since 1986. The Distinguished Alumnus Selection Committee unanimously recommends that Faith A. Fields, BSN-75 MSN-88, receive the award for 2015.

The committee chose to recognize the length of honorable service of this UCA graduate. The award will be presented to Ms. Fields at an appropriate venue in 2015.

Faith A. Fields, BSN-75 MSN-88

During her long and fulfilling career in nursing, Faith A. Fields was able to significantly advance the nursing profession through improved systems, communication and regulatory updates. Upon graduation from UCA in 1975, Ms. Fields spent several years working in the areas of critical care, education, long-term care and nursing administration.

In 1988, she was appointed by then Governor Clinton to serve as a member of the Arkansas State Board of Nursing (ASBN). In 1991, she joined the staff of the Board of Nursing, serving as director of nursing education with responsibility for the oversight of nursing education programs in Arkansas.

In 1996, Ms. Fields was selected by the ASBN to serve as their executive director, responsible to the board for the administration and enforcement of the Arkansas Nurse Practice Act. She retired from the ASNB in 2010. Mrs. Fields currently serves as the nurse residency program coordinator at Conway Regional Medical Center.

Accomplishments during her leadership at ASBN include:

- statewide articulation plan which was developed between all levels of entry-level nursing programs;
- disciplinary process was collaboratively developed with the Attorney General's Office;
- additional staff members were obtained to promote and enhance the office's services;
- electronic data-base of the state's nurses;
- state funding for scholarships to prepare more nurses and more nurse educators; and
- creation of a bi-monthly statewide magazine which focuses on nursing regulation.
Ms. Fields also initiated a statewide regional workshop, focused on regulation, just culture, ethics in nursing practice, and regulatory guidelines.

While serving as executive director, Ms. Fields became actively involved in the National Council of State Boards of Nursing (NCSBN). Through her leadership, Arkansas was the second state in the nation to pass the Interstate Compact for Nurse Licensure that enables a nurse to practice in any state in the country that has enacted similar legislation, using their Arkansas license. Ms. Fields also assumed an active leadership role with NCSBN serving as president of NCSBN (2006-2008). In addition, she served as director-at-large for two years and as a NCSBN liaison to the Institute of Regulatory Excellence, Advanced Practice Committee and the Nurses Advisory Panel.

Ms. Fields has received recognition and service awards at both the state and national levels. In 1988, she was awarded the Academic Excellence Award. At the state level, she has twice received the Distinguished Service Award from the state nurses association, a state Nurse Administrator of the Year Award, and a Woman Pioneer Award by the state chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners. In August 2009 she was honored with the National Council of State Boards of Nursing's prestigious R. Louise McManus Award.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted upon motion by Shelia Vaught and second by Elizabeth Farris:

“BE IT RESOLVED: That the Board of Trustees hereby recognizes the contributions and achievements of Faith A. Fields and confers on her the honor of distinguished alumnus. The board directs the administration to prepare appropriate formal resolutions and memorials to recognize her accomplishments.”
