

FINDING COMMON GROUND

Finding Common Ground is a webinar that explores ways people can come together, listen to diverse perspectives, and make crucial decisions as a group.

Webinar Speaker: Malcolm Glover

Malcolm Glover is an award-winning journalist, certified conflict mediator, communication analyst, educator, and humanitarian who has traveled the world helping people solve problems. For more than a decade, he has worked with governments, organizations, and communities in over eight countries on four continents.

Webinar available starting
September 8, 2014
Register at uca.edu/cced

Learn how to:

- Deliberate rather than debate community concerns
- Use deliberation as a tool to connect with stakeholders
- Make better group decisions based on communication strategies
- Stimulate public action

FREE
ON DEMAND
WEBINAR!