

COMMUNITY DELIBERATION

Solving Problems at the Grassroots Level

Friday, November 14th
9 a.m.- 12 p.m.

Brewer-Hegeman Conference Center

University of Central Arkansas

Registration Price: $25

Register at: uca.edu/cced

Workshop Speaker: Malcolm Glover

Malcolm Glover is an award-winning journalist, certified conflict mediator, communication analyst, educator, and humanitarian who has traveled the world helping people solve problems. For more than a decade, he has worked with governments, organizations, and communities in over eight countries on four continents.

Learn How to:

- Become an effective moderator
- Facilitate discussions with diverse groups
- Inspire civic action through creative forums that rally people to a cause
- Understand group concerns and use deliberation as a tool to connect with stakeholders
- Deliberate rather than debate community concerns
- Convene, moderate, and record deliberative forums

Who should attend:

- Non-profit leaders
- Elected officials
- Community & Economic Developers
- Chamber Officials
- Grassroots activists
- Educators
- Workshop Facilitators

CENTER FOR COMMUNITY & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

University of Central Arkansas™