

At the Community Development Institute (CDI) we provide our participants with the training they need to create communities with robust economies, a flourishing quality of life, and diverse and engaged citizen leaders.

CDI 2018 is the 32nd institute, and serves as an opportunity for organizations to reaffirm their commitment to training that leads to healthy and vibrant communities.

The University of Central Arkansas underwrites a significant portion of CDI, but there is still a need for additional funding to assist in overall program development. Opportunities to sponsor the 2018 institute are now available. Sponsors will be recognized throughout the institute so that the community leaders who attend will know who helped make CDI possible.
