

General Education Council Recommendation

WHEREAS the Director of Planning and Assessment was originally on the General Education Council but asked to be taken off when his duties were expanded far beyond planning and assessment;

WHEREAS the Higher Learning Commission report has reinforced the awareness that assessment is one important area that the Council needs to focus on;

WHEREAS UCA now has a Director of Academic Assessment whose job is to focus on the assessment of academic programs;

THE GENERAL EDUCATION COUNCIL RECOMMENDS that the faculty senate expand the membership of the General Education Council to include the Director of Academic Assessment as a non-voting, ex officio member.
