English 2390 Introduction to Drama

First Year Seminar, Spring 2016

Instructor Office E-mail Office Hours Class Details	Dr. Paige Reynolds Irby 424 preynolds@uca.edu Wednesday, 10:00 am-3:00 pm; Thursday, 2:00-4:00; or by appointment TR, 12:15-1:30, Irby 201
Course Description	Welcome to Intro to Drama! In this course, we will carefully and critically read, discuss, and write about drama and its development from Greek tragedy through the present. In particular, we will explore the ways in which drama has historically created, reflected, and resisted various forms of meaning from religious, cultural, artistic, political, and literary perspectives. How does drama function as a mediator of meaning in terms of the complex emotions and facets of the human experience it explores? How do dramatists use the tools at their disposal to shape plays for different purposes? And in what specific ways do audience members and readers alike perceive meaning through stories fashioned for the stage? Additionally, this class is a First Year Seminar , which means we will integrate into the course information that will be invaluable to you throughout your time at UCA, including an orientation to the UCA Core mission, purpose, and general learning outcomes.
	Read This! In our reading material this semester we will encounter "adult situations." If you choose to take this course, you are choosing to consider in a mature and constructive manner religious, political, and ethical perspectives that differ from your own. I will do the same.
Course Objectives	<ul> <li>Our objectives for the semester are:</li> <li>To understand and apply the UCA Core mission, purpose, and general learning outcomes.</li> <li>To develop a working knowledge of drama as a genre.</li> <li>To explore the selected plays from a variety of critical viewpoints.</li> <li>To discover connections and contradictions within and between the plays.</li> <li>To detect cultural assumptions underlying the plays of each period, and in the process become aware of our own cultural assumptions.</li> <li>To develop and present ideas logically and effectively in order to enhance communication and collaboration with diverse individuals and groups.</li> <li>To participate in our own acts of performance, through reading, analysis, discussion, writing—and perhaps even some performing.</li> </ul>
Required Text	Gainor, J. Ellen, Stanton B. Garner, and Martin Puchner, eds. The Norton Anthology of Drama : Shorter Second Edition . W.W. Norton & Co: New York, 2014.
	Other readings will be provided by the instructor via Blackboard. You must be able to access Blackboard to receive important course materials.
Course Readings	You are responsible for reading all of your assignments prior to the class period during which we will discuss them. As you read, keep track of questions and ideas. I will welcome and respect all informed opinions and statements. I aim to structure the class around your contributions—questions and commentaries—as much as possible.

Course Grade	Participation Exam 1 Exam 2 Reading Responses & E-mail Assignments Performance Reviews 1 & 2 Performance Presentation	10% 15% 15% 20% 20% 20%
Examinations	You will take two exams. On each exam, you may be asked to identify and write substantially about quotations from the works and respond briefly to short answer questions. Material covered in exams will include readings, discussions, and lectures. You are required to write legibly—if I cannot read your exam, I cannot grade it. An exam may be rescheduled only due to dire circumstances and only when documented appropriately.
E-mail Assignments	You will be asked to complete 2 e-mail assignment handouts provided.	nts. See requirements on separate
Reading Responses	<ul> <li>Over the course of the term, you will have the op reading responses. For each response, focus on or image, theatrical device, etc.) related to the play withould:</li> <li>Be typed in Times New Roman or Garamond</li> <li>Be double-spaced, on an 8.5 x 11 inch sheet,</li> <li>Be as free of errors as possible (use spell and carefully before turning in).</li> <li>Be one full page (no more, no less).</li> <li>Include a proper heading (your name, course,</li> <li>Include at least TWO citations from the play, direct quotations from the play's dialogue or</li> <li>Always do more than summarize the material that interests you, think about why it interests writing.</li> <li>Reading responses are meant to prepare you for counderstanding of the texts, and encourage you to texts we read. You will receive credit only if the response fulfills the given assignment. Assignments inadequate in the second seco</li></ul>	<ul> <li>bene specific element (a character, scene, re are currently reading. All responses</li> <li>d 12-point font.</li> <li>with margins of one inch or less.</li> <li>grammar check, and edit responses</li> <li>, my name, date, and a title).</li> <li>That is, you should incorporate two stage directions into your response.</li> <li>I—pick a particular aspect of the work s you, and articulate your thoughts in</li> <li>class discussion, deepen your make connections among the various e meets the above technical requirements and</li> </ul>
Performance Reviews 1 & 2	In this course, we will spend a great deal of time a drama. In order to enrich your experience in the of theatre performances of your choosing at some p a 3-5 page critical review of each production and selfie that proves your attendance at the play). In and evaluate its effectiveness. What key insights of trying to develop? How can you tell? Describe y audience member, as well as any significant reaction the conversation in this class more interesting and experienced a couple of live performances for you non-local, if you have the opportunity) university, semi-professional productions. A few (free) sugg	classroom, you will attend at least 2 live oint during the semester. You will write hand it in along with a ticket stub (or a each review, describe the performance or ideas in the play was the director our feelings and reactions as an ons of those around you. You will find d relevant for having recently urself. You may choose any local (or , professional, or

	<ul> <li>Dead Man's Cell Phone, Black Box Theatre, Snow Fine Arts, UCA February 11, 12, 18, &amp; 19 at 7:30 pm &amp; February 13 at 2:00 pm Tickets are available through UCA Ticket Central located in the box office at Reynolds Performance Hall.</li> <li>*Admission is free, but tickets are required.</li> <li>Measure for Measure, Cabe Theatre, Hendrix College February 24-27, 2016 Wednesday-Friday at 7:30 pm &amp; Saturday at 2:00 pm *Visit: https://www.hendrix.edu/theatrearts/ for more information</li> <li>The Winter's Tale, Bridges/Larson Theatre, Snow Fine Arts, UCA April 7, 8, 14, &amp; 15 at 7:30 pm &amp; April 9 at 2:00 pm February 11, 12, 18, &amp; 19 at 7:30 pm &amp; February 13 at 2:00 pm Tickets are available through UCA Ticket Central located in the box office at Reynolds Performance Hall.</li> </ul>
	*Admission is free, but tickets are required. You may wish to visit the websites of the following theatre companies to see ticket information for other local productions this spring: Arkansas Repertory Theatre, Weekend Theatre, Studio Theatre, & the Lantern Theatre.
Performance Presentations	<ul> <li>You will sign up to work on a presentation in a small group. Your group's task is to perform a short section of one of the plays we read this semester.</li> <li>Part 1: Performance</li> <li>Your performance should be no less than ten minutes, and no longer than fifteen (you may choose an entire scene, a portion of a scene, or excerpts of multiple scenes—as long as your selection fits within this time limit). Your performance may be live or filmed (note that filmed performances will be held to standards as high as those for live performances—your final product should not look like a high school project on</li> </ul>

Part 2: Talkback

After each performance, we will have a "talkback." Preparing for this aspect of the assignment is as important as the performance itself. In the talkback, the audience will have a chance to ask questions about your performance and, as a group, you will have a chance to discuss what ideas shaped your approach, the process of rehearsal, what surprised you in performance, and what you learned about some aspect of the play through your work with it. Further, in the talkback, each group member should have prepared one open-ended discussion question to ask the class.

YouTube). Actors in your performance must have lines memorized (even if filmed).

Part 3: Portfolio

On the day of your presentation, your group will hand in a portfolio documenting your group's process. It must include:

- A description of each group member's role and your responsibilities in that role (as agreed upon by all), along with a log of meeting activities outside of class (1 page).
- A brief explanation of why your group chose this particular scene (or scenes), your vision for the scene, and your justification for the medium you have chosen (stage or film) (2-3 pages).
- Your assertion of the scene's significance to the play as a whole (2-3 pages)
- Your explanation of design choices and casting decisions, with any examples you deem appropriate (photos, material samples, drawings, etc.) (2-3 pages). Please consider: theme (decide on the one theme/problem that your staging will address and put it into a sentence—can be a phrase from the work, or something that your group writes); casting (you may limit your discussion to the group members portraying the roles for the project or you may choose from public figures—actors, singers, athletes, politicians, and other popular culture icons, living or dead, past or present—to hypothetically cast as the main characters); protagonist (whose story does your version of the scene tell?); genre (is your staging part of a Broadway production of the play, a traditional period version of the play, or an experimental black box theatre production? Is it part of an artsy indie film, a Hollywood summer blockbuster or a horror flick?). Who is your anticipated audience, and why does this matter?

- At least 1 discussion question per group member relevant to the scene and your particular interpretation of it. These questions should be open-ended and aimed at fostering discussion in class (thus you should avoid questions that merely ask for content summary or invite "yes" or "no" responses). You will use these questions to lead the class in a brief discussion during your presentation.
- Please use a folder of some kind for the portfolio.

Not all members of your group are required to be actors (unless you pick a scene that demands it). There are other essential roles in this project, such as director, dramaturg, technical, and discussion facilitator. No single group member should compile the portfolio in isolation. Each group member must have a clearly defined role, and you must all become equally invested in the presentation. Your grade for this performance will be a group grade—you will succeed or fail together. It is therefore essential that you work together to overcome the challenges posed by conflicting schedules, conflicting ideas, and different experience levels. We will discuss this assignment further in class next week.

Participation

The most crucial thing you bring to this class is your desire to actively participate. I invite you to take control of your own education in this course—think about what it is you want to learn and work at it. Participation comes in various forms, and below I have listed several important factors contributing to your participation grade for this course. Take note that your final grade may be swayed by the quality of your participation.

- Discussion: you must speak in class if you hope to be successful. Please come to class having read all of the assigned material and be prepared to engage in a meaningful discussion of the issues it raises. Keep track of questions that come to mind as you read, and share those with the rest of the class. Commenting on the texts in class is a crucial part of learning to analytically think, read, and write about literature.
- Conduct: please be on time, stay awake, and refrain from carrying on private conversations, tweeting, texting, or working on other coursework during class. Respect, trust, and courteous classroom conduct are essential in this course. Please silence cell phones and other gadgets and remove them from your desk or lap. Laptop use is not permitted during class. Bringing a beverage to class is acceptable; bringing food is not. Failure to behave in an appropriate manner will result in the lowering of your participation grade. In extreme cases, I will ask you to leave the class.
- Commitment: you must attend class to be an active participant. If your schedule has constraints that will not allow you to attend regularly or to come to class prepared to participate, you may choose not to join us this semester. If you decide to take this course, you are deciding to attend the class every time it meets. In return, I am promising you that I will do my part to make class meetings meaningful learning experiences. You will be unable to pass the course if you are absent more than four times (this includes both excused and unexcused absences—written excuses are not necessary).

	If you must miss a class , it is your responsibility to check in with a classmate to find out what was covered. You should exchange email addresses with at least two of your classmates so that you might contact them should you miss a class. Name/Email Address:
	• Text: in order to fully participate, you must purchase your own copy of the text and you must bring it to class with you. We will use it every day. Failure to regularly bring your text to class will result in the lowering of your participation grade. Further, you may be marked absent if you come to class without your text.
Grade Calculation	100-90 =       A $69-60 =$ D $89-80 =$ B       Below $60 =$ F $79-70 =$ C       C       F
Academic Integrity	The University of Central Arkansas affirms its commitment to academic integrity and expects all members of the university community to accept shared responsibility for maintaining academic integrity. Students in this course are subject to the provisions of the university's Academic Integrity Policy, approved by the Board of Trustees as Board Policy No. 709 on February 10, 2010, and published in the Student Handbook. Penalties for academic misconduct in this course may include a failing grade on an assignment, a failing grade in the course, or any other course-related sanction the instructor determines to be appropriate. Continued enrollment in this course affirms a student's acceptance of this university policy.
Open Door Policy	Feel free to come see me whenever you need to discuss anything about the course. It is best to make an appointment with me during office hours or reach me by e-mail. When you e-mail me, be sure to include the topic of the message in the subject line and include your name at the end of the message. Always include a full explanation, and please do so with courtesy and respect.
Compliance with Americans with Disabilities Act	The University of Central Arkansas adheres to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you need accommodation under this act due to a disability, contact the Office of Disability Support Services at 450.3135.
Sexual Harassment Policy	Please consult the current UCA Student Handbook for university policies regarding sexual harassment.
Title IX Disclosure	If a student discloses an act of sexual harassment, discrimination, assault, or other sexual misconduct to a faculty member (as it relates to "student-on-student" or "employee-on-student"), the faculty member cannot maintain complete confidentiality and is required to report the act and may be required to reveal the names of the parties involved. Any allegations made by a student may or may not trigger an investigation. Each situation differs and the obligation to conduct an investigation will depend on those specific set of circumstances. The determination to conduct an investigation will be made by the Title IX Coordinator. For further information, please visit: https://uca.edu/titleix. *Disclosure of sexual misconduct by a third party who is not a student and/or employee is also required if the misconduct occurs when the third party is a participant in a university-sponsored program, event, or activity.

Building Emergency An Emergency Procedures Summary (EPS) for the building in which this class is held Plan will be discussed during the first week of this course. EPS documents for most buildings on campus are available at http://uca.edu/mysafety/bep/. Every student should be familiar with emergency procedures for any campus building in which he/she spends time for classes or other purposes.

	Schedule of Readings and Assignments (subject to change)
Week 1	January 7	Discussion:	Introduction to the Course & UCA Core
Week 2	January 12 January 14	Discussion: Discussion: Due: Reading:	Discuss & sign up for Presentations; Discuss E-mail Assignments; Reading Response Workshop Sophocles, Oedipus the King (428 B.C.E.) E-mail Assignment 1 (must be sent before class on this day) Introduction, pages 1-4 and 82-85; "Bibliotherapy" (article link in "Content" section of Blackboard for this course)
Week 3	January 19 January 21	Discussion: Discussion: Due:	Presentation Conferences—do not miss! Everyman Reading Response 1
Week 4	January 26 January 28	Discussion: Discussion: Due:	Everyman , continued William Shakespeare, Hamlet, Act 1 (1600-01) Reading Response 2
Week 5	February 2 February 4	Discussion: Discussion:	Hamlet , Acts 2 & 3 Hamlet , Acts 4 & 5
Week 6	February 9 February 11	Discussion: Presentation: Discussion: Due:	Finish Hamlet Group 1 Molière (Jean-Baptiste Poquelin), Tartuffe (1664-9) Reading Response 3
Week 7	February 16 February 18	Discussion: Presentation: Discussion: Due:	Tartuffe , continued Group 2 Henrik Ibsen, A Doll House (1879) Reading Response 4
Week 8	February 23 February 25	Discussion: Presentation: Discussion: Due:	A Doll House, continued Group 3 Finish A Doll House Performance Review 1
Week 9	March 1 March 3	Discussion: Due: Exam 1	Susan Glaspell, Trifles (1916) Reading Response 5

Week 10	March 8 March 10	Discussion: Due: Discussion: Presentation:	Tennessee Williams, A Streetcar Named Desire (1947) Reading Response 6 A Streetcar Named Desire , continued Group 4
Week 11	March 15 March 17	Discussion: Due: Discussion: Presentation:	Arthur Miller, Death of a Salesman (1949) Reading Response 7 Death of a Salesman , continued Group 5
Week 12	March 21-25	Spring Break
Week 13	March 29 March 31	No class Due: Discussion: Due:	E-mail Assignment 2 (must be sent before class on this day) August Wilson, Fences (1985) Reading Response 8
Week 14	April 5 April 7	Discussion: Presentation: Discussion: Due:	Fences , continued Group 6 John Patrick Shanley, Doubt (2008) Reading Response 9
Week 15	April 12 April 14	Discussion: Discussion:	Doubt , continued Doubt , continued
Week 16	April 19 April 21	Discussion: Due: No class (*extra	Course Wrap-up Performance Review 2 a credit option to attend Student Research Symposium)
Final Exam	April 26	11:00-1:00 (Ex:	am 2)