Things to Remember

- Tuition cannot be paid until you have registered for class.
- Some credit cards have daily spending limits.
- You must put your name and student ID number on all electronic money transfer.
- If money is wired, fees will be taken out of that amount.
- If you live on campus, out-of-state tuition will be waived.
- You must complete a Release of Information Authorization if you receive any scholarships or fee waivers.
- If payment has not been made by the student, scholarships, grants, or other means, the student is subject to be dropped for non-payment.
- International Insurance— if you have your own insurance, you must get proof to International Engagement BEFORE school starts.
- International Tax— 14% of eligible charges.
- ALWAYS check to make sure your address is correct.

Saudi Arabian Cultural Mission

- If a student does not have a financial guarantee, they are responsible for 100% of the bill.
- If guarantee is not in place at the beginning of the semester, International insurance will be charged.
- As soon as you get your financial guarantee, bring a copy to Ellen Loveless in McCastlain 144.
- Financial guarantee must cover the dates enrolled.
- Guarantee does not cover housing, meal plans, books, or any late fees or insurance.
- Student must send a transcript to the Mission immediately after grades are available.
