As a culminating experience in the graduate preparatory program (School Library Media Track), candidates must satisfactorily complete a program portfolio and present passing scores on the PRAXIS II – Library Media examination. The program portfolio must be submitted at least three weeks prior to graduation and must be formally presented to the LIBM faculty for approval. The PRAXIS II – Library Media examination should be taken at the earliest possible date during the semester planned for graduation. A score of 148 as set by the Arkansas Department of Education is the minimum required to pass the PRAXIS II – Library Media examination.

An on-campus new student orientation is held each semester on the first Saturday after classes begin. Check with your program coordinator for the actual date.

* DESY - Synchronous delivery: You must be online on the day/time the course is offered.

* DEAS - Asynchronous delivery: You have assignments and deadlines to meet, working on your own.

* Other - Special schedules such as weekends or other types of arrangements.
