College of Education
Department of Leadership Studies
School Counseling Program

Academic Integrity

- ▶ Why “integrity”? The answer lies in UCA’s mission. That mission commits all the members of the university community to acquiring, sharing, evaluating, and communicating knowledge. It stands to reason that such a mission depends on the integrity of those participating in carrying out the mission – that is, on their participation being honest and ethical. This is a shared responsibility.

Academic Integrity

- ▶ A student in the College of Education is expected to act in an honest, ethical and professional manner.
- ▶ All students must be aware of and adhere to the UCA Academic Integrity Policy (AIP)
- ▶ Web site: <http://uca.edu/board/files/2010/11/709.pdf>

Academic Integrity

Points to Consider

- ▶ What is Academic Integrity?
- ▶ What does being ethical mean?
- ▶ What are the examples of cheating?
- ▶ How do we Avoid Violations of Academic Integrity?

Academic Integrity

▶ Possible Sanctions for violating the Academic Integrity Policy

1. Zero points for the project, assignment, or exam.
2. Zero points for the project, assignment, or exam and course grade lowered by one letter grade.
3. F (failing) grade or reduced grade for the course
4. Disqualification, suspension or expulsion from the College of Education/University

Student Obligation

- ▶ To be honest
- ▶ To do your own work
- ▶ To be ethical
- ▶ To do what is moral and fair

Academic Integrity: Summary

As a College of Education student it is a priority to act in an honest, ethical and professional manner.

- ▶ Students must adhere to the Academic Integrity Policy (AIP).
- ▶ Students have an ethical obligation to submit their own work.
- ▶ Students need to take reasonable measures to avoid having their work be copied.
- ▶ Violations of the AIP can result in disqualification, suspension or expulsion from the COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.
- ▶ Honesty is the best policy.
