PA Hosts Model United Nations Day Today

Pulaski Academy, October 23, 2009

Pulaski Academy will host the 5th Annual Model United Nations Day for the state of Arkansas. In recognition of United Nations Day, UN Day is celebrated globally in recognition of the formation of the United Nations in 1945. Previous hosts of the event have been the University of Central Arkansas and the University of Arkansas at Little Rock. This is the first year that a high school has hosted the event.

Students from 7 area high schools and two colleges will be on the PA campus Friday, Oct. 23 for the event, which will begin at 9 a.m. in Murphy Theater. Educational activities dealing with Model UN, the Arab-Israeli Conflict, Model Arab League, and UN Security Council Reform will be covered. Keynote Luncheon Speaker will be Dabbs Cavin, a PA parent and micro finance pioneer. Cavin lived in Rwanda for two years and has also worked on global poverty eradication in Lebanon, Sri Lanka and elsewhere in the developing world. The luncheon is at 12 p.m. noon and is open to parents.
