

ANTHROPOLOGY: Minor Requirements

There are six required courses for the Minor in Anthropology, totaling 18 hours; nine of these hours must be upper division. All Anthropology minors are required to take ANTH 1302, Introduction to Anthropology. Anthropology minors must then choose and complete two courses from the Anthropology Core, which will ensure that students are trained from an anthropological perspective. Students then must complete three additional courses from the Anthropology Core or from the designated electives.

Minor Declaration Form

Students must complete a Minor Declaration Form to enroll in the program. Progress toward completion of the minor will be tracked on this form, kept by the Minor Advisor, Dr. Brian Campbell. Students should meet with their minor advisor in advance of their registration for any term during which they will enroll in a course that contributes to the Anthropology minor. Certification of successful completion of the Anthropology minor will be documented on this form, a copy of which will be stored in Anthropology files.
