Introduction to Traditional Chinese Brush Painting*  *there's an additional cost for painting materials &amp; supplies of $25  NOTE: No prior painting experience required Wednesdays  5:30-7:00pm  10-week course  Sept. 7th – Nov. 9th Location  UCA Campus  Torreyson West Room 317  *use the handicapped entrance to the west of the main library doors	Course Description: Thought to have begun approximately 6,000 years ago, Chinese brush painting is one of the oldest continuing art traditions in the world. In this class, the instructor will introduce the art of brush painting. This brushwork style involves essentially the same techniques as Chinese calligraphy (also discussed &amp; demonstrated in this course). Using a brush dipped in black or colored inks, students will first learn how to position their hands correctly to make the various stroke patterns required for Flower-and-Bird Painting: a genre which peaked during the Song Dynasty. This course will mainly focus on plant motifs such as bamboo: “one of the three durable plants in winter,” and classical flowers. Along with learning the basic painting techniques, students will also learn how elements of Chinese history &amp; culture are interwoven in this ancient art form.  Beginning painters are welcome!	Instructor: Ms. Hai Li Liu, UCA Confucius Institute Instructor biography:  Ms. Liu received her B.A. in Fine Arts from Northwest Normal University &amp; her M.A. in Fine Arts from Xuzhou Normal University in Jiangsu Province, China. This area of China is well-known not only for its historic importance, but also for being a center for culture &amp; the arts. Ms. Liu is a distinguished member of the Art Department faculty at Xuzhou Normal University. This year, she is a visiting professor with the UCA Confucius Institute. Ms. Liu has received many awards and honors during her 15 years of teaching painting and the fine arts. A very kind and patient teacher, she delights in sharing her culture’s rich artistic tradition with students from all over the world.
