

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL ARKANSAS
Extension of Probationary Period for Tenure/Promotion
COVID-19

In recognition of the significant challenges faced in planning for teaching and learning, performing service, and disruption to the progress of scholarly and creative activity due to COVID-19, all University of Central Arkansas tenure track faculty in their probationary phase will be offered a one-year extension of the probationary period. The process for application is modeled after the process outlined in the Faculty Handbook, Ch. 3, §VI.A.3, "Extension of Probationary Period."

Individuals seeking a one-year extension must complete and submit this application form. Note that all fields are required.

This application form is due to the department chair or school director no later than May 31, 2020. The request is forwarded through the chair and dean, with signatures, to the provost. If it is not possible to sign, the document may be forwarded via UCA email for each level of acknowledgement.

A copy will be retained in the official personnel file. Electronic Signatures are acceptable, and the final document may be submitted virtually to provost@uca.edu.
