Visitors to UCA's Admissions Office are provided with convenient reserved parking spaces near Bernard Hall. Admissions is located on the first floor of Bernard Hall, just inside the main north entrance.

Follow these directions to reach the reserved parking area for Admissions visitors and guests. (Also, look for directional signs pointing the way along the route).

1. Enter campus from Donaghey Avenue on the east side of campus and go to Beatrice Powell Street (between the College of Business building and AETN).
2. Go west on Beatrice Powell approximately 0.2 miles to the first stop sign, which is a three-way stop.
3. Turn right and go north for half a block. The reserved parking area will be on the right, marked by a large purple and white sign. Individual parking spaces are marked on the pavement with "Reserved for Admissions Visitors" and purple parking lines.
4. Walk north from the parking lot, past the west end of Schichtl Hall, and continue north between the Student Center and Bernard Hall. At the northwest corner of Bernard, turn right and proceed to the main entrance. This total walking distance is about two blocks.
