STUDENT RESPONSES:

"I have only met with her once, but she gave me jelly beans when I cried so that made me happy."

"Every time I meet with her, she's extremely thoughtful and helpful. Generally, she'll already have an idea of what I might need to accomplish or look for in terms of credits for a semester, but she'll always leave room for discussion, and change things depending on what I say I'm interested in doing for that semester."
