

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL ARKANSAS
BOARD POLICY

Policy Number: 363

Subject: Honorary Degrees

Date Adopted: 08/85 Revised: 08/94, 02/01, 12/12, 02/16

Purpose

The honorary doctorate is the highest academic honor awarded by the University of Central Arkansas. It is bestowed in recognition of outstanding contributions to society through intellectual, professional, scientific, artistic, or public service efforts. In granting an honorary degree, the University of Central Arkansas acknowledges excellence and provides an example to members of the university community.

Types of Degrees

Honorary degrees may be conferred by the university, with the most appropriate degree being determined by the candidate's qualifications. Examples include the following:

- Doctor of Public Service (D.P.S.);
- Doctor of Commerce (Com.D.);
- Doctor of Letters (Litt.D.);
- Doctor of Science (Sc.D.);
- Doctor of Fine Arts (D.F.A.);
- Doctor of Humane Letters (L.H.D.); and
- Doctor of Pedagogy (P.E.D.)

Eligibility

1. Candidates for honorary degrees must have distinguished themselves through outstanding contributions to society.
2. Members of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, or administrators of the university are ineligible for honorary degree consideration.
3. Local, state, or national government officials who currently hold office or who are candidates for office are ineligible for honorary degree consideration.
4. Honorary degrees shall not be awarded in absentia or posthumously except under extraordinary circumstances.

5. Only under exceptional circumstances will the university grant more than one honorary degree during an academic year.
6. The university may choose not to grant an honorary degree in any particular year.

Honorary Degree Committee

A committee consisting of nine members shall be appointed to review nominations for honorary degrees. The committee membership shall include:

1. Four tenured faculty members:
 - a. One appointed by the president;
 - b. One appointed by the provost; and
 - c. Two appointed by the Faculty Senate;

Faculty members will serve staggered four-year terms. No college may have more than one representative.

2. The president of the Faculty Senate, or designee;
3. The president of the Student Government Association, or designee;
4. The president of the Staff Senate, or designee;
5. The president of the Alumni Association; and
6. The dean of the Graduate School.

The dean of the Graduate School will serve as committee chair, but will be a non-voting member.

Procedures for Nomination and Selection of Candidates

The Honorary Degree Committee will establish and publish timelines for the nomination and selection process described in this policy.

1. Nominations shall originate from members of the faculty. A nomination may originate from an individual faculty member, from a department or college, or from the collaborative efforts of two or more departments or colleges within the university.
2. Any recommendations of potential nominees that come from outside the faculty shall be received by the Office of the Provost for referral to the appropriate college.
3. The Office of the Provost will invite faculty to submit nominations for honorary degrees.
4. Nominations shall be written and should include:

- a. A biographical statement containing name, address, professional title, place of birth, educational background, employment history, and other honorary degrees, if any;
 - b. Appropriate written documentation for the nomination, including a list of primary contributions that qualify the individual for the honorary degree; and
 - c. A minimum of three written references from knowledgeable persons in academia, public or private sectors who are familiar with the nominee's contributions.
5. Nominations will be handled with discretion and confidentiality as permitted by law.
 6. The provost will forward complete nomination files to the chair of the Honorary Degree Committee. The chair shall convene the committee to discuss committee procedures and meeting schedules. Support by a majority of the committee's voting membership shall be required to forward the nomination. Nominations not receiving a majority vote will be removed from further consideration.
 7. The Honorary Degree Committee will forward its recommendations to the provost. Positive recommendations will be accompanied by appropriate comments and will include the recommendation(s) of the degree(s) to be conferred. The provost will make appropriate comments and forward the file(s) to the president of the university.
 8. The president may
 - a. reject the nomination(s), ending all action; or
 - b. endorse the nomination(s), with appropriate comments, and forward the file(s) to the Board of Trustees.
 9. At its first meeting after receipt of the nominations, the Board of Trustees may
 - a. approve, by simple majority, the conferring of the honorary degree(s) upon the candidate(s), or
 - b. reject the nomination(s), ending all action.
 10. Upon approval by the Board of Trustees, candidates will be informed by the president of their selection and invited to accept the honorary degree. Following acceptance, a public announcement will be made, and the degree will be conferred at a commencement ceremony of the nominating college or colleges or at another appropriate event.

Honorary Posthumous Degree to a Student

The president is authorized to adopt separate procedures for awarding an honorary posthumous degree to a student who dies while enrolled in a degree program of the university. An undergraduate student pursuing a bachelor's degree at the time of death may be awarded the Bachelor of Science and Arts degree in University Studies – Posthumous honoris causa, when given an honorary posthumous degree. A graduate student pursuing either a master's or a doctoral degree at the time of death may be awarded the Master of Science and Arts degree in University Studies – Posthumous honoris causa, when given an honorary posthumous degree.
