Approval for New University Committees and Revision of University Committee Guidelines

- A letter of intent to form/organize a new committee or revise a committee is sent to the University Committee on Committees Chair. The Chair of the Committee on Committees will respond within 48 hours of receipt.
- The committee's organizer will use the New Committee Proposal or Committee Revision guidelines below. The proposal is submitted no later than 14 business days prior to the next University Committee on Committees meeting. This will allow for a reasonable amount of time for the proposal to be reviewed.
- The University Committee on Committees' Chair will contact the organizer within a reasonable amount of time, if additional documentation is needed prior to the Committee's meetings. Organizers may be invited to attend the meeting and present their proposal to the Committee.
- Approved committees will officially be added to the University Committees webpage upon approval. Approved revisions will be changed on the committee website within a reasonable time period. Any changes to literature (i.e. handbooks), will occur the following academic year.

New Committee Approval Guidelines:

- Name of the Committee
- Background (Has the group already been working in this capacity? For example, did the group start as a workgroup, sub-committee, ad-hoc committee, or a convening? If appropriate, please provide any evidence of support for this group)
- Need and Importance (Provide a rationale that explains how this committee fills a gap, addresses a concern on campus. Include how this committee's work will avoid duplication, but might integrate with other committees, if and when appropriate)
- Alignment to the University's core competencies, mission, and goals.
- Membership structure (University committees should have representatives from staff, faculty, and students)
- The Committee's charge (Please provide how you would like the committee's charge to be presented on the webpage)

Revision of Committees Guidelines:

- Name of the Committee
- Explanation of the proposed changes, and why

Approved by University Committee on Committees on September 19, 2019
