

Bart Dooley earned his Bachelor of Music Performance in Voice with a minor in piano from the University of Central Arkansas in 1996. He continued his study at UCA and earned his Master of Music in 1998. During his master's study, he was the UCA Choir Conductor, John Erwin's graduate assistant. Mr. Dooley returned to UCA to earn his Bachelor of Music Education degree in 2000. In the Spring of 1995, Mr. Dooley started teaching private piano and voice lessons through the UCA Community School of Music. In the Fall of 2006, Mr. Dooley joined the Community School's Children's Chorus as an accompanist and has continued to the present. He is also an accompanist for the Arkansas Choral Connections Choir Camp every summer at UCA since 2003. Mr. Dooley and his family are regularly invited to sing and play at various community and church events.

Mr. Dooley has been a music education specialist since Fall of 2000 when he was the Jr. High Choir Director at Vilonia. In the Fall of 2004, he became the music specialist at Ida Burns Elementary in Conway. He is currently in his 19th year in education and his first year as music specialist at Marguerite Vann Elementary in Conway.

Mr. Dooley became Assistant Worship Minister at Central Baptist Church of Conway in the Fall of 2017.
