

Dahré Miller is currently working towards his Bachelor of Music Education; studying clarinet under Dr. Kelly Johnson. He has been teaching with the Community Music Institute since 2017, and was a volunteer clarinet teacher at Maumelle Jr. High and High School. Dahré has won the MTNA state competition in 2017, and was named a winner of the UCA Student Spotlight Competition in 2018 in which he will be featured as a soloist with the band. During his undergraduate he has served as principle chair for the UCA Wind Ensemble, Arkansas Intercollegiate Band, and Conway Symphony Orchestra. Dahré has performed in multiple masterclasses by world-renowned clarinetists, including Robert Spring, Yehuda Gilad, Eddie Daniels, and more.
