

The Community School welcomes Sarah Cain to our voice faculty!

Sarah Cain is an alumna of the University of Central Arkansas with an undergraduate degree in Vocal Music Education, graduating with academic honors. During her graduate studies, Sarah received the Artist Development Award from the Kristin Lewis Foundation Scholarship Competition and participated annually in the department's Concerto Competition. She holds a M.M. in Vocal Performance from UCA.

As a graduate student in the UCA Opera Theater Program, Sarah was best known for her performances as the Sandman / Dew Fairy in Hansel and Gretel, Susanna in The Marriage of Figaro, and Lucy in Menotti's The Telephone.

In 2014, she began teaching private voice and piano lessons at Blackbird Academy of the Arts, Inc. Sarah served as the Private Voice and Piano Instructor at Blackbird Academy of the Arts, Inc. for the past four years before returning to UCA.

Blackbird Academy of the Arts, Inc. was a nonprofit community arts academy dedicated to providing innovative, creative arts opportunities to Conway and its surrounding communities.

Sarah is a teacher and member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS) and is an affiliate of the Arkansas chapter.

Sarah is a soloist and choir member at First Presbyterian Church of Little Rock. When she is not teaching or singing in her church choir, Sarah also enjoys participating in local community theatre productions. Her most recent credits include: Dragon from Shrek the Musical (Red Curtain Theatre), Mrs. Finfer / Featured Dancer from Miracle on 34th Street the Musical (Red Curtain Theatre), and Alice / Dreamer from The Secret Garden (Argenta Community Theater).
