

Emelia Belin is currently working towards a degree in music performance on oboe. She has been studying under the instruction of Dr. Lorraine Duso for five years. Before that she studied with, former student, Andreas Oeste who now teaches at the The University of Wisconsin-Madison School of Music. She will be attending the John Mack oboe camp this summer. At school she participates in the UCA Symphonic Band, Conway Symphony Orchestra, and the Oboe Trio.

