- LGBTQ+ Advisory

- Working alongside various constituent groups to ensure participation in the faculty/staff affinity group, supporting programming for RSO's, and alliance work with LGBTQ+ CREW. Additional efforts include ongoing work to refine the forms for internal name-change, and legal name change, as well as information for the website. Some of these efforts are pending some partner completion, including ongoing work for assisting students and alumni with name change and diploma guidelines. However, our biggest news is the opening of the UCA Lavender Library, an academic space for LGBTQ+ inclusion in Arkansas Hall. Officially opened during DBIE week, supported by housing and residence life, Residential Colleges (specifically Dr. Jayme Stone and Mr. Carl Olds, as well as student worker Kai Hernandez), and a new grant from NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) it is a space for educational technology, speakers, and library collections benefitting the LGBTQ+ community on our campus. The library materials in this space are freely available--meaning people can elect to return them, replace them, keep them, or pass them to others, as needed and without judgment.
