

UCA Fact Sheet

University Overview

University of Central Arkansas (UCA) was founded in 1907 as the Arkansas State Normal School. Today the campus is spread across 356 acres, and is one of the largest and oldest public universities in the state.

The University of Central Arkansas offers outstanding academics and a lively campus community. With more than 160 academic programs all taught by dedicated faculty members, UCA delivers in quantity and quality. At UCA, there's no shortage of activities to refresh your mind and connect you with fellow students. UCA is located in Conway, Arkansas, a tight-knit community with a vibrant downtown that makes our campus a home away from home. UCA has a diverse student body of more than 10,000 students. UCA offers 90 undergraduate degrees and 64 graduate degrees and certificates. The campus includes a nature preserve and walking trails on more than 350 acres. UCA students represent all of Arkansas' 75 counties, almost all 50 U.S. states, and more than 70 foreign countries.
