

Constitution for The University of Central Arkansas (UCA) Resident Housing Association (RHA)

ARTICLE I - NAME

This organization shall be known as the Resident Housing Association, hereinafter referred to as RHA. RHA shall operate under the powers and limitations of this constitution and the policies of the University of Central Arkansas, hereinafter referred to as UCA.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE AND GOALS

Section I: Purpose

The purpose of RHA shall be to represent and help provide for the needs and wishes of UCA residents to Housing and Residence Life and the rest of the university.

Section II: Objectives

1. To plan, implement, evaluate, and support a spectrum of services and programs that enhance the on-campus community.
2. To serve as a liaison between on-campus residents, housing, university administration, and other student organizations on campus, as well as out regional and national affiliates.
3. To inform residents about campus and housing issues that will affect them and promote the most favorable environment possible in the residence halls on the UCA's campus.
4. To promote leadership, creativity, relationships, advocacy, and inclusion within the residential community.
5. To act as a forum for the exchange of ideas, and experiences within on-campus housing.

Section III: Goals

1. To assist and provide input to the UCA Housing Staff on issues and policies that will affect the community environment of residential students.
2. To sponsor campus-wide events pertaining to the residence halls as a whole. Such events shall include programs of a social and instructional nature.
3. To assist in individual hall activities such as individual hall programs or joint hall programs, which, while not including all residence halls, would be special activities of interest to those halls.
4. To assist in the organization and promotion of approved hall intramural activities.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section I: Eligibility

1. Membership to RHA is automatically affiliated to all students living on campus, including all residence halls and apartments, at the University of Central Arkansas.

2. All members of RHA are granted speaking rights in RHA meetings.
3. Guests are granted speaking rights in RHA meetings.
4. Voting rights are reserved for those elected into the RHA Cub Representative position, the RHA Cub Advisor position, and for members of the RHA Executive Board, except for the President, who maintains the right to only vote in the case of a tie.
5. Any voting member with two unexcused absences will be subject to removal from their position.
6. To make an absence excused, the voting member must give notice of their absence before the starting time of the meeting by sending an email to the RHA Business Manager, the RHA Advisor, and their Residence Coordinator of the residence hall or apartment.
7. Any tardiness over ten (10) minutes is counted as an unexcused absence.
8. Emergency absences can be excused by a vote of the executive board post-absence.
9. Proxy voting is allowed, however, the voting member is responsible for informing both the Business Manager and the party they are proxying their vote to in writing.
