Residence Hall Room Damage Charges

Damages to room or room furnishings beyond the limits of reasonable wear will be charged to the occupants of that room. The Condition Report is provided for your protection against incorrect charges to your personal account. It will be assumed that any damage to your room or room furnishings which has not been noted on the Room Condition Report must have occurred while you were in residence. Of Course, failure to properly complete the room check will make you liable for all repair and replacement cost.
