Cost: $700.00 (Workshop Only)

Faculty

Basic: Michael Chandler

Movement: Ben Torres

Recorder: Ben Torres

Level II content continues the learning sequence established in the Level I course. Participants will continue to explore the use of speech, body percussion, pitched and unpitched percussion, singing, recorder, movement, improvisation, composition and pedagogy in the music classroom. This course adheres to the established American Orff-Schulwerk Association Teacher Education Curriculum.

Kodaly Education Teacher Course

Level I

July 15th - 26th, 2015

Cost: $700.00 (Workshop Only)

Faculty: TBA

The intent of the Level I course is to act as an introduction to the vision, philosophical and practical application of the Kodaly methodology to the music classroom. This developmentally sequential, active music-making approach emphasizes singing, artistry, literacy, authentic music materials, reflective practice, and inquiry-based learning within a prepare-present-practice-assess instructional model for teaching musical concepts and skills.
