

Course Title: Level I Fieldwork - Occupational Therapy Process
Course Number: OTHY 6102

Course Description: Application of professional skills and foundational components of the occupational therapy process with a focus on the social and psychological aspects that influence engagement of occupation within a practice setting.

Course Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, the learner will:

1. Integrate appropriate professional behaviors, confidentiality, and compliance with ethical standards within a practice setting during interactions with clients, families and other professionals. (B.9.1)
2. Demonstrate adherence to safety procedures within a practice setting. (B.2.8.)
3. Demonstrate the ability to use interview and observation to collect data as part of the OT evaluation process. (B.4.1.)
4. Document findings of an interview and/or observation with a client with a given diagnosis. (B.4.10.)
5. Demonstrate ability to interview and obtain data necessary for completing an occupational profile. (B.4.1.)
6. Translate findings from the occupational profile into a format consistent with selected documentation procedures. (B.4.10.)
7. Based on data collected, develop and implement contextually relevant individual and/or group interventions address psychosocial development (B.5.3, B.5.4).
8. Complete psychological and social analysis of intervention and determine methods for enhancing the use of client-centered occupations within the constraints of the practice environment. (B.2.7.)
9. Critically reflect upon the application of the OT process including use of legitimate tools within occupational therapy practice in a variety of settings. (B.5.7.)