Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

What are CIP codes? The Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) provides a taxonomic scheme that supports the accurate tracking and reporting of fields of study and program completions activity. CIP was originally developed by the U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) in 1980, with revisions occurring in 1985, 1990, and 2000 (<https://nces.ed.gov/ipeds/cipcode/Default.aspx?y=55>).

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2018-19. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

Each program has designed field-based assignments to ensure that all candidates (including those in online programs) have experiences in a variety of school settings and with: (1) students from at least two ethnic groups; (2) students with exceptionalities; and (3) students who are English language learners. Further, assessment measures throughout the unit require candidates to demonstrate (1) their knowledge of multiple instructional/assessment/intervention strategies for various learning styles; (2) their ability to link to students' experiences and cultures to learning experiences; (3) capacity to incorporate multiple perspectives in their instruction and planning; and (4) how to make appropriate accommodations/modifications for the students with which they work. Diversity statistics also are maintained for all of the public schools where candidates are placed for graduate programs and the Office of Candidate Services works with program coordinators to develop a tighter system for ensuring all candidates have experiences with at least two ethnic groups, students with exceptionalities, and English Language Learners. Each of these experiences is now attached to a specific assignment in a specific course. Candidates cannot move forward in the program until they have successfully completed these assignments.

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(B\)\)

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact Westat's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes
 No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

The University of Central Arkansas Educator Preparation Programs (UCA EPP) promote every educator's sense of professional efficacy in the development and integration of technology. Professional efficacy affects an educator's sense of responsibility and competence to contribute to the growth and development of all learners. Effective teachers model and apply the ISTE Standards for Educators as they design, implement, and assess learning experiences to engage students and improve learning; enrich professional practice; and provide positive models for students, colleagues, and the community. All teachers should meet the established technology standards and performance indicators. As evidence, each syllabus must indicated the technology proficiencies addressed in that course. The UCA EPP technology proficiencies are listed at <http://uca.edu/education/coe-technology/>

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program.

(§205(a)(1)(G))

Teacher Training

1. Provide a description of the activities that prepare general education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

All students complete the course Pedagogy of Diverse Student Populations. This course examines the dimensions of diverse populations in schools and implications for educational programming and instruction. Specifically, the course focuses on methods, curriculum models, strategies, modifications, and skills necessary for teaching diverse students, which includes those with disabilities.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

The Pedagogy of Diverse Student Populations includes discussions of general education teachers as members of the individualized education program teams. General education teachers understand their role as members of the IEP team as well as their responsibilities in the classroom to modify or accommodate students based on the terms of the IEP.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

LEP students are among the diverse populations discussed in the diversity course. Students are introduced to services available to LEP students as well as basic strategies for working with these students.

2. Does your program prepare special education teachers?

- Yes
 No

If yes, provide a description of the activities that prepare special education teachers to:

a. Teach students with disabilities effectively

The MAT in Special Education K-12 is a 36 hour program designed to ensure candidates will gain expertise in learner development and individual learning differences, learning environments, curricular content knowledge, assessment, instructional planning and strategies, professional learning and ethical practices, and collaboration. Recognizing the changing and complex role of the special educator, the MAT program prepares candidates to: 1. Provide support and instruction to students with cognitive, physical, behavior, multiple, and/or health disabilities from kindergarten through 12th grade; 2. Work in different educational settings such as self-contained, resource, and regular classrooms; 3. Access the general education curriculum, demonstrating a strong knowledge and skill set in academic content areas; and 4. Effectively collaborate and work closely with general education teachers, related service personnel, administrators, and families to ensure all students are given every opportunity to reach their full potential.

b. Participate as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.

The purpose and role of the special education teacher in the IEP team is discussed throughout the program. This discussion includes the collaboration with the general education teachers to provide services to students with disabilities and to detail the support that the special educator can provide.

c. Effectively teach students who are limited English proficient.

Students who have limited English proficient are among the diverse populations discussed throughout the program. The special educator is equipped with strategies to engage and interact with LEP students.
