

WOMEN IN THE CROSSFIRE

Understanding and Ending Honor Killing

A lecture by Schedler Scholar-in-Residence

Robert Paul Churchill

Elton Professor of Philosophy
George Washington University

Every year, thousands of girls and women die at the hands of blood relatives. These victims are accused of committing honor violations that bring shame upon their families: such “transgressions” range from walking with a boy in their neighborhood, to seeking to marry a man of their own choosing, to being a victim of rape.
