PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Assistant Provost for Academic Assessment and General Education
University of Central Arkansas

2020 – Present

The Assistant Provost for Academic Assessment and General Education leads and supports academic departments and programs in the assessment of student learning outcomes and directs the University of Central Arkansas' general education program. Position responsibilities include:

In the domain of Academic Assessment, the Assistant Provost for Academic Assessment and General Education:

- ♦ Provides expertise and consultative support to academic programs in (a) identifying mission-relevant goals and measurable outcomes; (b) developing appropriate direct and indirect measures of these outcomes; (c) collecting and analyzing assessment data using appropriate research methodologies and applicable software applications; and (d) assisting academic programs in drawing conclusions from assessment data to facilitate data-informed improvements in student learning.
- ♦ Implements, documents, and evaluates effective and efficient processes for conducting assessment planning, reporting, review, and use.
- ♦ Reports on progress towards achieving assessment goals to the Associate Provost for Institutional Effectiveness.
- ♦ Works collaboratively with (a) the Office of Institutional Research to ensure that relevant data resources are accessible to academic programs' continuous improvement processes and that programs are supported in ethical and responsible use of data in these processes; (b) the Center for Teaching Excellence to design and implement stakeholder training in the fundamentals of assessment and the university's academic assessment systems and processes; and (c) faculty, staff, and administrators to collect and report evidence of continuous improvement in support of the criteria for Higher Learning Commission (HLC) accreditation.
- ♦ Works with the Assessment Research Associate and the Associate Provost for Institutional Effectiveness to actively maintain the assessment web site, organizing and communicating the university's assessment resources and processes.
- ♦ Chairs the Academic Assessment Committee and serves as needed on other committees related to the scope of the position's responsibilities.

In the domain of General Education, the Assistant Provost for Academic Assessment and General Education:

- ♦ Directs the UCA Core program.
- ♦ Chairs the UCA Core Council and oversees the Council's three standing sub-committees.

- ♦ Collaborates with others who assume responsibility for elements of the UCA Core program (e.g., FYS curriculum design, faculty development, and related activities).
- ♦ Exercises responsibility for the assessment of the UCA Core program as well as developing and implementing improvement measures.
- ♦ Acts as program chair of the UCA Core program, with authority to grant substitutions and waivers as appropriate. In this capacity, regularly consults with the office of the registrar, the academic advising center, and transfer services.
- ♦ Actively participates in standing university committees whose charge or scope includes the general education program at UCA.
- ♦ Exercises responsibility for the communication plan and all public relations for the UCA Core.
