

Classes in Counseling Psychology Doctoral Program - Fall 2021

Fall - Year 1 (12 hours)
(Odd years) P6379 Personality Assessment - Provides theoretical background and practical experience in the administration, scoring, and interpretation of the major objective and projective personality tests. Prerequisite: PSYC 5320 or PSYC 6314.
(Even Years) P6313 Psychoeducational Assessment - Provides knowledge and skills in the psycho-educational evaluation of children and adolescents including assessment-related standards, ethics, and report writing; emphasizes intellectual assessment Prerequisites: PSYC 6330 and consent of instructor.
P6330 Advanced Statistics - Provides an overview of statistics, focusing on how to conduct and interpret various statistical tests. Descriptive and inferential statistics are covered. Prerequisite: PSYC2330.
P6354 Theories of Psychotherapy and Counseling - Provides an overview of the major theoretical approaches to psychotherapy, including a critical evaluation of each theory.
P6398 Legal and Ethical Issues - Covers ethical and legal issues in psychology and counseling.
Spring - Year 1 (12 hours)
P6314 Psychopathology - Survey of behavior disorders, their origins, their characteristics, and treatment. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.
P633I Research Design - Covers the design and analysis of educational and psychological research. Prerequisite: PSYC6330.
C6350 Process and Skills - To develop in the counselor-in-training fundamental attending and listening skills necessary for all counseling, and to encourage self-exploration within the major theoretical approaches. Prerequisite: PSYC6354.
P6356 Group Psychotherapy and Counseling - Covers applications of group psychotherapy and counseling. Prerequisite: PSYC6354.
Summer - Year 1 (6 hours)
C6342 Career Education and Vocational Development - Provides an overview of major career development theories and practical application for counselors, school counselors, and state agency personnel which will enable them to assess and counsel more effectively with students regarding vocational endeavors.
P7360 Foundations of Counseling Psychology - Introduction to the specialty of counseling psychology, including the history, philosophical bases, and current and emerging directions. Emphasis on critically reviewing literature in the field and examining counseling psychologist roles and functions.
Fall - Year 2 (10 hours)
C6381 Counseling Practicum I - Supervised experience in counseling. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor and minimum of 15 semester hours including PSYC6354, COUN6350. Must make arrangements prior to registration.
(Odd years) P6379 Personality Assessment - Provides theoretical background and practical experience in the administration, scoring, and interpretation of the major objective and projective personality tests. Prerequisite: PSYC5320 or PSYC6314.
(Even Years) P6313 Psychoeducational Assessment - Provides knowledge and skills in the psycho-educational evaluation of children and adolescents including assessment-related standards, ethics, and report writing; emphasizes intellectual assessment Prerequisites: PSYC 6330 and consent of instructor.
P7I41 Doctoral Research Seminar in Psychology - Addresses issues related to research in professional psychology.
P7320 Regression and Multivariate Statistics - Covers multiple regression and related multivariate analyses commonly used in the behavioral sciences. Prerequisites: PSYC6330, PSYC6331.

Spring - Year 2 (10 hours)

C6382 Counseling Practicum II - Continuation of COUN 6381. Prerequisite: COUN6381 and consent of instructor. Must make arrangements prior to registration.

P7361 Psychological Treatment and Methods - Advance study of empirically supported treatment approaches to a variety of disorders. Examines the theoretical, empirical, and technical aspects of specific psychological treatments.

P7141 Doctoral Research Seminar in Psychology - Addresses issues related to research in professional psychology.

P8320 Integrated Healthcare in the Community - An overview of integrated primary care whereby psychological intervention is made in primary care medicine.

Summer - Year 2 (10 hours)

P7312 Learning and Cognition - Examines the major principles and theories of learning and cognition.

P7141 Doctoral Research Seminar in Psychology - Addresses issues related to research in professional psychology.

P7315 Application of General Linear Model to Experimental Design - Covers the analysis of factorial, noise-reducing, and multivariate experimental designs through use of linear models. Prerequisites: PSYC 6330 or equivalent and PSYC 6331.

ELECTIVE

Fall - Year 3 (12 hours)

P7365 Doctoral Practicum in Counseling Psychology - Supervised counseling experiences in professional psychology planned in accordance with the departmental Counseling Psychology Handbook. A minimum of 150 hours is required per semester.

(Odd years) C6334 Analysis and Measurement of Individual - Appraisal of the individual through objective tests, interviews, and other data gathering devices.

(Even years) P6350 History of Psychology - Acquaints students with the important historical contributions to the field of psychology.

P6370 Advanced Developmental Psychology - Provides study into the theoretical and applied aspects of lifespan development.

P6355 Multicultural Issues in Psychology and Counseling - Addresses psychology/counseling implications of societal changes and trends, human roles, societal subgroups, social mores and interaction patterns, and differing life styles. Prerequisite: PSYC6354.

Spring - Year 3 (9 hours)

P7365 Doctoral Practicum in Counseling Psychology - Supervised counseling experiences in professional psychology planned in accordance with the departmental Counseling Psychology Handbook. A minimum of 150 hours is required per semester.

P6316 Child Psychopathology - Surveys the etiology, assessment, and treatment of child psychopathology and developmental disorders in children.

(Even years) P6363 Advanced Social and Affective Foundations - Surveys classic and contemporary research on how we perceive, influence, and relate to others including the topics of attribution, persuasion, attraction and prejudice; emphasizes empirically identified processes underlying social cognition and behavior. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor.

Summer - Year 3 (6 hours)

P7365 Doctoral Practicum in Counseling Psychology - Supervised counseling experiences in professional psychology planned in accordance with the departmental Counseling Psychology Handbook. A minimum of 150 hours is required per semester.

P7325 Physiological Psychology - Surveys techniques of investigation in physiological psychology, the structure and function of nerves, muscles, and endocrine glands, and the biological/physiological basis of behavior.

Fall - Year 4 (12 hours)

P7365 Doctoral Practicum in Counseling Psychology - Supervised counseling experiences in professional psychology planned in accordance with the departmental Counseling Psychology Handbook. A minimum of 150 hours is required per semester.

(Odd years) C6334 Analysis and Measurement of Individual - Appraisal of the individual through objective tests, interviews, and other data gathering devices.

(Even years) P6350 History of Psychology - Acquaints students with the important historical contributions to the field of psychology.

P9310 Dissertation in Psychology - Requires students to carry out an original research project with the approval of their advisors and dissertation committee, and to present an oral defense of the research to the dissertation committee at the time of completion. Students must continue to enroll in the dissertation course until all related requirements are successfully completed. Prerequisite: Successful completion of comprehensive examinations and admission to candidacy.

P6393 Marriage and Family - Surveys major issues and theoretical approaches in Marriage and family therapy. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor.

Spring - Year 4 (6 hours)

P9310 Dissertation Research in Psychology - Requires students to carry out an original research project with the approval of their advisors and dissertation committee, and to present an oral defense of the research to the dissertation committee at the time of completion. Students must continue to enroll in the dissertation course until all related requirements are successfully completed. Prerequisite: Successful completion of comprehensive examinations and admission to candidacy.

(Odd years) P6373 Individual and Organizational Consultation/Supervision - Provides knowledge and skills in individual and organizational consultation and supervision.

Summer - Year 4 (3 hours)

P9310 Dissertation Research in Psychology - Requires students to carry out an original research project with the approval of their advisors and dissertation committee, and to present an oral defense of the research to the dissertation committee at the time of completion. Students must continue to enroll in the dissertation course until all related requirements are successfully completed. Prerequisite: Successful completion of comprehensive examinations and admission to candidacy.

Fall - Year 5 (6 hours)

P9605 Doctoral Internship in Professional Psychology (6 hours) - Provides doctoral students with full-time direct supervised experience in the practice of professional psychology. Prerequisite: Successful completion of pre-internship requirements including comprehensive examinations.

Spring - Year 5 (6 hours)

P9605 Doctoral Internship in Professional Psychology (6 hours) - Provides doctoral students with full-time direct supervised experience in the practice of professional psychology. Prerequisite: Successful completion of pre-internship requirements including comprehensive examinations.