This policy covers the following academic scholarships: Leadership, University, Achievement, Excellence, Distinguished, Distinguished (Out-of-State), Transfer, Dean's, Presidential, Trustee, Foundation, and Academic All Star.

Students who were awarded academic scholarships beginning Fall 2013 and prior have the opportunity to reinstate their academic scholarship if the scholarship was lost May 2014 or a prior semester. Once the scholarship is reinstated, the student must meet the current renewal requirements, at the time of reinstatement, for future renewal, if additional award terms are available. Scholarships can only be reinstated one time.

Requirements for Reinstatement:

- Student must not receive an academic scholarship for at least one Fall or Spring semester prior to requesting reinstatement.
- There must be at least one eligible Fall or Spring semester remaining on the scholarship when requesting reinstatement.
- Student must have earned a minimum of 15 UCA undergraduate hours the semester immediately preceding the request for reinstatement. Only Fall and Spring hours count toward the hour requirement.
- Student must have at least a 3.5 cumulative UCA undergraduate GPA.
- Student must remain continuously enrolled at UCA each Fall and Spring semester.
- There will be no reinstatement of academic scholarships lost December 2014 and after.
