 - D. Senator Lugo- Family Day is Saturday from 11:30 am- 3:30 pm. Open to the UCA and Conway community. A lot of t-shirts and fun.
 - E. Senator Burton- Aramark did donate meal vouchers for Employee Recognition. We will have donations from Aramark, UCA Bookstore, parking spot and certificate.

- F. Senator R. Burton- Community announcement- ArtFest (5th Ave. Park) and on Oct. 8 there will be a Voter Barkanalia.
- G. Senator Richardson - the Welcome Center is further delayed and won't be open until mid October maybe. Campus tours will still operate out of Harrin.
- H. Senator Peten- If you have any students who owe a balance, they should have received an email stating that they need to have something in place by Oct. 14th before meal plan suspensions and drops happen from non-payment. If you have any students in this situation, please send to Student Accounts
- I. Senator Jessica Taylor- Daryl Walsh is retiring at the end of September and me and Garrett (Rimmer) are going to absorb some of those things. So basically if your department relies on Daryl, he won't be here after September 30th, so reach out to me or Garrett or Matt if you have questions or issues.
- J. Senator Turner- if you have a student group that needs to request money for Spring semester, budget submissions close on Friday and we will start SAFA hearings on Oct. 1st. They will have to select a time and date for hearings. If you have questions, email Tiffany Turner to forward to SGA.
- K. Senator Hall- Online, Returning and Transfer Services has had an acceptance for open position, so hopefully they start on the 15th. If anyone wants a Reynolds booklet, contact Emily Hall or Kendra Erickson and we can coordinate with Reynolds.
- L. Ex Officio Ruud- Next Thursday, Oct. 3rd from 12 pm- 3 pm is the Majors Fair in the Student Center with representatives from each academic college. If you aren't sure what to major in or want to talk to someone about your major, come out.
- M. Senator Hammond- Wellness Fair is also Oct. 3rd in the HPER from 12:30 pm- 2:30 pm.
- N. Senator Garrett Rimmer- Family weekend reiteration and lower reserve is almost sold out. About 30 seats left in section 1-7
- O. Senator Taylor- UCA Athletics won every game played across all sports that played. We had our first home volleyball tournament of the year.
- P. Senator Fulton- Hoping to have volunteers for this Saturday. The library is doing band book week and we have an awesome display of all the band books and a sustainability display
- Q. Senator Vangsnes- it is busy over in Student Success. This is the beginning of progress reports. They open on the 20th and close on the 30th (full week). If they are at risk send out an email on Monday reminding all faculty and staff . You guys do not have to walk all the way across campus to pick up a ticket. You can order those online, so any faculty that you know of that are wanting to attend the game, they can order online. They can pick, they can order tickets for the last game, the season, first game, whatever y'all want.
- R. Faculty Senate President Shires- Thank you to all that you do to make campus an amazing place and I know its not easy sometimes. Thank you for working with Faculty
 1. Don't forget that all staff have free admission to all Snow Fine Arts performances/events. Take a look at our website to see what our students and faculty are bringing to campus in Windgate and Snow.
