

“The UCAN program – “Unlocking College Academics Now” allows students on first academic suspension to continue their education rather than sitting out a semester.

Would you enroll in an Academic Boot
Camp for a second chance?

UCAN is here!

Do you need study skills, accountability and motivation?

You Must?

- * Attend the mandatory orientation meeting on August 21, 2019 from 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. in Burdick, Room 205
- * Be available every Tuesday during x-period (1:40 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.) to attend academic success workshops - NO EXCEPTIONS
- * Attend and successfully complete your classes, including the UCAN Seminar, a one hour non-credit seminar.
- * Limit your enrollment hours.
- * Complete weekly mandatory study hours in the library.

How do you apply?

- * Call (501) 450-5149 to schedule an appointment. Please tell the receptionist you need to schedule an appointment with Mr. Marvin Williams for the fall UCAN Program. Appointments for the fall program will begin June 10th. On your appointment day, be on time and sign in at the front desk of the Advising Center in Harrin Hall. Bring your completed application and the UCAN contract with you to your appointment!

If we to fail to hear from you,

YOUR SCHEDULE WILL BE PURGED!

You will not be able to make changes to your schedule or meet with your advisor for registration until you have met with Mr. Williams and been accepted into the UCAN program. If you are accepted into the program, you will be enrolled in the UCAN seminar for the summer semester, unless you have flags (library, student accounts, UCAPD) on your account that prevent registration. Financial aid suspension and academic suspension are not the same and are handled within two different offices. Financial aid approval does not guarantee acceptance into the UCAN program. Likewise, acceptance into the UCAN program does not guarantee financial aid approval. Please be advised and take the appropriate steps for both suspensions.

Limited availability!

Act promptly and follow the instructions above to apply!

Only serious students should apply for this program.
