

Teaching and Learning Minor
Approved: January 2013

At this time the minor will apply to Social Studies, English, Family and Consumer Sciences, French and Spanish teacher education majors.

The Teaching and Learning minor includes a minimum of 18 credit hours from the Professional Education coursework listed below. Additionally, students seeking a 7-12 or K-12 teaching license must complete a content methods course, an intense internship experience, required content major coursework, and any other departmental requirements. Course substitutions are allowable ONLY as approved by the minor advisor.

The following courses can be counted for the minor:

- EDUC 1300 Education as a Profession – Preadmission course
Offered: Fall/Spring/Summer
 - EDUC 3322 Diverse Learners in Inclusive Settings - Requires admission to teacher education
Offered: Fall/Spring/Summer(contingent upon enrollment)
 - MSIT 3310 Learning and Development – Teacher education admission is not required
Offered: Fall/Spring/Summer
 - MSIT 4305 Classroom Management - Requires admission to teacher education
Offered: Fall/Spring – Taken with Internship I
 - EDUC 4210 Educational Technology – Requires admission to teacher education
Offered: Fall/Spring – Taken with Internship I
 - MSIT 4321 Classroom Assessment - Requires admission to teacher education
Offered: Fall/Spring – Taken with Internship I
 - MSIT 4325 Disciplinary Literacy– Teacher education admission is not required
Offered: Fall/Spring/Summer
-